ARMY & NAVY WEST POINTERS TO CELEBRATE Schofield Notes

In honor of the founding of West Point, officers of the United States army will gather at the Moana Hotel Saturday evening, March 17, for an anniversary banquet.

President Thomas Jefferson signed the act creating the United States military academy at West Point, March 16, 1802, and since then wherever the army of the United States is located this anniversary is celebrated. New York, Boston, Chicago, San Francisco, Manila, Peking and all other ports will join in celebrating this year with Honolulu and during the day and evening wireless messages will fill the air with congratulations from one gathering of Americans to another.

The local celebration at the Moana Hotel, under the direction of Manager Moroni, will start at 9 o'clock and all graduates and men who have attended the academy are invited. A combined orchestra from all army bands in the department will furnish music. An officers' double quartette will provide West Point songs and will lead the West Pointers at the banquet in toasting Benny Havens, that jovial entertainer of old time West Point, and in singing his praises and those of their alma mater.

Gen. Strong will act as toastmaster, introducing Gen. Treat, Col. William S. Guinnard, Maj. R. E. Longan and Lieut. S. H. MacGregor, who are to be speakers at the evening.

Between and after the speeches a long list of songs, stunts and specialties are ready to be sprung if the fun shows up enough to get them in. Every West Pointer in the islands is expected to attend. Those who have not been listed at headquarters will be expected to send in their names to Maj. Charles G. Mettler, Room 15, Young Hotel building, and advise him with what class they wish to be seated. From present indications at least 150 men will be present.

NATIONAL GUARD NOTES

Lieut. John A. McElbow is detached from command of 2nd division and assigned to headquarters staff as engineer officer.

The following promotions in the Naval Militia are announced for the information and guidance of all concerned:

Ensign Lewis W. Branch to be lieutenant. Assigned to 2nd division.

Ensign Henry W. Engel to be lieutenant (junior grade). Assigned to 2nd division.

A competitive examination, open to all enlisted men of the 2nd division, Naval Militia of Hawaii, will be held at such time and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the commanding officer, Naval Militia of Hawaii, to determine the fitness of candidates for promotion to fill a vacancy in the grade of ensign (enlisting duties only).

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, March 13.—This afternoon about 60 enlisted men of the 1st Infantry reported to Col. Hodges, who is president of a board of officers appointed to recommend enlisted men for temporary commissions in time of war. These men may be commissioned captain, first lieutenant or second lieutenant, depending on their ability and all have been recommended by their company commanders. The other officers of the board are Capt. G. de Grassie, Capt. Elvid Hunt and 1st Lieut. Frank V. Schneider.

Pvt. Robert Hinzman, Troop M, and A. P. Robertson, Troop H, 4th Cavalry, alleged deserters, who were arrested by the police authorities in Honolulu, have been turned over to the military authorities at Schofield Barracks for trial by general court-martial. Robertson was found on board a whaler in the harbor. Pvt. Richard J. Moore, Company C, 32d Infantry, is to be tried on the same charge. He was also picked up by the police in Honolulu.

All companies of the 1st Infantry were paid yesterday afternoon by Capt. Thomas H. Barker, Quartermaster Corps, about $22,000 in cash was paid out. The 9th Field Artillery will be paid today, and the 25th Infantry will be paid next Monday.

In order to assist in recruiting the regular army in the United States, the War Department has decided to use the newspapers of rural communities for this purpose. Hereafter all company commanders will send all news items relating to the men of their commands to the War Department with a view to having such items published in local newspapers of the counties in which the men formerly resided. Blank forms for this purpose have been furnished company commanders, who will forward them three times each month. By adopting this method, relatives and friends of soldiers will be kept posted as to their whereabouts and duties, and the army will be brought to the attention of men of rural districts who have formerly had no opportunity to observe the doings of the army. This utilization of the press is expected to bring better results than the recruiting methods now in force.

The next examination of enlisted men for commissions as probationary second lieutenants in the Regular Army will be held on April 25. Applications to take the examination must be forwarded by March 15. The examinations will be similar to the three that have been held this year, and which resulted in several enlisted men of this post being commissioned by the President.

Orders recently received from the War Department announced the names of the two new batteries of coast artillery in the coast defenses of Honolulu as follows: Battery Boyd and Battery Adair, in honor of Capt. Chas. A. Boyd, 10th Cavalry, and Lieut. Henry R. Adair, 10th Cavalry, respectively. Both of these officers were killed in action at Carrizosa, Mexico, June 21, 1916, by Carrizosa troops.

Troop E, 4th Cavalry, has gone to Fort Kamehameha for guard and patrol duty. While there the troops will be quartered in barracks and enjoy the routine of post life instead of camp duty which is exceedingly unpleasant in the present rainy weather. Capt. Jerome J. Pillow commands Troop E with 1st Lieut. Richard Kimball on duty with the troop.

A new special court martial has been appointed to meet at the 25th Infantry headquarters. Maj. Hugh D. Wise, Capt. John B. Corley and Capt. Charles L. Wyman are members. First Lieut. Walter H. Frank is judge advocate.

Cpls. Harold J. Cross and Oscar Ramsey, Cook Joseph H. Duval, Pvs. 1st Class Frank E. Glickerson and Horace C. Livingston, all of the Medical Department, have been ordered to report to an examining board at Schofield Barracks to take the examination for the grade of sergeant, Medical Department.

The following men have been ordered to proceed from this post to Fort Shafter and report to the officer in charge of the School for Bakers and Cooks: For instruction as cook: Pvt. William H. Webb, Machine Gun Company, 32nd Inf.; Cook William M. Lee, Company D, 25th Inf.; Pvs. Frank H. Stenlake and William B. Henley, Supply Company, and Henry E. McNamee, Battery F, 1st F. A.; Pvs. Joseph Carpenter, Battery D, Julius Strum, Battery E, and Louis Ecker, Battery F, 9th F. A. For instruction as baker: Pvt. 1st Class Neils R. Jensen, Company F, 32nd Inf.; Pvt. 1st Class Samuel Manning, Company C, 25th Inf., and Pvt. Raymond F. Norton, Troop L, 4th Cav. The four months' course will begin on March 15.

Boards of officers from each regiment stationed at Schofield Barracks are busy conducting examinations of enlisted men for temporary commissions as officers in time of war. All armies engaged in the present war in Europe have greatly felt the need of officers who have had experience enough to train new troops, and it is known by the War Department that our older non-commissioned officers are excellent instructors. For this reason a list of competent enlisted men is to be prepared at Washington.

OFFERS NOVELTY AT MOANA HOTEL

A novel entertainment is to be offered Thursday by Manager Moroni of the Moana hotel, who has planned a garden fiesta for the pleasure of the Great Northern passengers and local society folk in and out of the army. The affair will take place in the large tropic garden between the hotel and the sea. The trees will be hung with Japanese lanterns and colored lights to add to the aspect of festivity, and a carefully chosen program will occupy the earlier part of the evening. Dancing on the broad seaward lanai will complete the pleasure of the affair.

"The Buzzard's Shadow," a military photo-play of absorbing interest, will be the main feature of the program. This film has not been shown before in Honolulu. An excellent stringed orchestra will furnish part of the musical section of the entertainment, and a soprano soloist will add a number of popular and classical selections. A Hawaiian orchestra of violin, guitar, and ukuleles will dispense the ever-delightful Hawaiian music, and will later play for the dancing on the lanai. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Menio will give an exhibition of some of the latest dances. The program will be commenced at 8:30.
